

Online Health Seeking Behaviour Among Students

SAACHS Conference 2025
Presenter: N Laurie

What is Health Seeking Behaviour?

Health seeking behaviour is any activity undertaken by individuals who find themselves with a health-related problem or illness with the aim of seeking an appropriate remedy.

Drivers and Implications

- Access to Information
- Convenience
- Peer Influence and social media
- Mental Health Awareness
- The Importance of Medical Guidance
- Promoting Health Literacy

Thank You