- 1.1. "Association" means The South African Association of Campus Health Services ("SAACHS");
- 1.2. "NEC" means the National Executive Committee of the Association.
- 1.3. "REC" means a Regional Executive Committee of the Association, reporting to the NEC;
- 1.4. "Chairperson" means the Chairperson of the National Executive Committee elected in accordance with this Constitution, or if that expression is used with reference to a general meeting or meeting of the NEC at which that person is not present or does not act as Chairperson, the person acting as Chairperson in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution;
- 1.5. "Constitution" means the Constitution for the time being of the Association;
- 1.6. "Member" means a body corporate admitted to membership in terms of this Constitution;
- 1.7. "the Republic" means the Republic of South Africa;
- 1.8. Expressions defined in the Higher Education Act 101 of 1997 in force at the date on which this Constitution becomes binding on the Association shall have the meanings so defined;
- 1.9. Words in the singular number shall include the plural and words in the plural number shall include the singular, words importing the masculine gender shall include females, and words importing persons shall include bodies corporate.

2. Name and Body Corporate

- 2.1. The name of the Association is and shall be The South African Association of Campus Health Services and its shortened name will be SAACHS.
- 2.2. The Association shall:
 - 2.2.1. Exist in its own right as a body corporate, and have an identity and existence distinct from its Members or office bearers;
 - 2.2.2. Continue to exist when its Membership changes and there are different office bearers;
 - 2.2.3. Subject to any restrictions in law or to the Higher Education Act 101 of 1997 be able to own property and other possessions;
 - 2.2.4. Be able to sue and be sued in its own name.

3. Main object

3.1. The main objectives of the Association are:

- 3.1.1. To initiate, promote, encourage, organise and foster a liaison between its Members in the interest of campus health care;
- 3.1.2. To encourage the exchange of ideas among Members with regard to campus health care and associated disciplines, inter alia through the provision of meetings, conferences, training initiatives and scholarships;
- 3.1.3. To undertake and report on research projects of an individual or collective nature;
- 3.1.4. To work in collaboration of other organisations that are involved in health care.

4. Conditions

- 4.1. This Constitution shall be deemed to authorise the Association to carry out activities in line with its objectives, unless that authority is expressly excluded.
- 4.2. Members or office bearers shall have no rights in the property or other assets of the Association solely by virtue of their being Members or office bearers.
- 4.3. Members or office bearers shall not be liable for any of the obligations and liabilities of the Association solely by virtue of their status as Members or office bearers.
- 4.4. Office bearers shall not be personally liable for any loss suffered by any person as a result of an act or omission which occurs in good faith while the office bearer is acting on behalf of the Association.
- 4.5. In particular, the following special conditions shall apply to the Association:
 - 4.5.1. The income and property of the Association shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its main object and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus, or otherwise to a Member or office bearer of the Association, provided that nothing shall prevent the payment in good faith of reasonable reimbursement to an officer or Member in return of services actually rendered to the Association.
 - 4.5.2. The Association may not carry on any business undertaking or trading activity unless:
 - 4.5.2.1. the gross income derived from such business does not exceed the amounts set out in the Income Tax Act, No 58 of 1962 or its successor; or
 - 4.5.2.2. the undertaking is directly related to the main object of the Association and the activity is carried out on a basis substantially directed towards the recovery of cost, and which would not result in unfair competition in relation to taxable entities; or
 - 4.5.2.3. the undertaking or activity, if it does not fall within 4.5.2.2 because it is not directly related to the main object of the Association, is of an occasional nature and is undertaken substantially with assistance on a voluntary basis without compensation; or
 - 4.5.2.4. the activity has been approved by notice in the Gazette.

- 4.5.3. The Association may not accept any donation which is ~~revocable at the instance of the~~ donor for reasons other than a material failure to the designated purposes and conditions of such donation, including a misrepresentation with regard to the tax deductibility thereof in terms of section 18A or its successor; provided that the donor may not impose conditions which could enable such donor or any connected person in relation to such donor to derive some direct or indirect benefit from the application of such donation.
- 4.5.4. The Association shall register in terms of section 13(5) of the Non-profit Organizations Act 71 of 1997 and comply with any other requirements imposed in terms of that Act.
- 4.5.5. The Association may make donations only to organisations having the same or similar objects to that of the Association and which, if the Association is exempt from tax are also so exempt.

5. Financial year-end

The financial year-end of the Association is 31 December.
